The Adur Art Trail returns in 2026, with new artists, fresh venues and plenty of returning favourites. Four houseboats - Verda, Rebus Stone, Verity and Myrtle - open their doors this year, always a highlight.

On Shoreham Beach, regular venues are joined by The Quay Hole Bar and The Hidden Gem, both showcasing a wide range of work. Pollinator Café also returns with reclaim art and great coffee. In town, The Shoreham Gallery, Chapter 34 and Town Quay Studios are joined by new activities, including Palate Bottle Shop's wine-label design competition and Drink & Draw sessions with Adur Art Collective artists.

The Circular Space hosts an Arts Council funded project; The Museum of Lost and Found. At Brighton City Airport, the Whispering Gallery features paintings, mixed media and an inspiring collage workshop.

Further afield, Art at 2A reopens with painters, printmakers, textile artists and ceramicists. Craft lovers can visit Sue Penrose's Mosaic Studio at Shoreham Port and the new RJ Leather Studio in Lancing, before exploring Artists at West Beach for exciting artworks - paintings, drawings, prints and 3D pieces galore.

Many venues are offering free or affordable creative workshops, see pages 22, 23 for details.

Our Trail Information Hub this year is Shoreham Art Gallery.

GETTING TO AND AROUND THE TRAIL - if you don't have a boat!

BY BIKE

Shoreham is bike friendly with several new cycle parking facilities at the junction of Brunswick Road and St. Mary's Road among other places and a bike is a great option to get across the Adur Ferry Bridge to the venues on Shoreham Beach.

BY TRAIN

The majority of the trail is easy walking distance from Shoreham-by-Sea train station.

ON FOOT

Why not explore the trail on foot and get those steps in? Plenty of rest stops to re-fuel along the way.

BY BUS

The 700 Coastliner bus runs along the coast road to Shoreham and will also easily get you to our venues in Southwick (Albion Street bus stop) and Lancing (The Broadway bus stop).

BY CAR

Shoreham has car parks at The Shoreham Centre, Pond Road, Middle Street, Tarmount Lane and Riverside. Street parking, although limited in the town centre, is free.
